HIGHLIGHTS

Our spring Citizens Police Academy (CPA) is in full swing with a record number of participants. Citizens are learning all about the department and how we function. The academy is 8 weeks long, with a 3-hour commitment on Thursday evenings from 6-9.

Officers Clint Anderson and Marek Ziegler went above and beyond, by helping a stranded motorist who has run out of fuel. They then discovered there was an expectant mother in the back seat who needed to get to the hospital! They pushed the vehicle out of harm's, went and got some fuel and sent them on their way.

Training Air Force Recruiting Sgt Ashley Kasper was kind enough to provide lunch to the Bozeman Police Department officers and staff. Chief Veltkamp, Deputy Chief Andy Knight, Captain McNeil, Captain Swanson and special services officers Chinman and Falcon were more than happy to accept lunch for the department.

The first annual Frozen Frontline charity fundraiser hockey game between the Police Department and Fire Department was held on March 24 at Haynes Pavilion. Even though the Police Department came out on top, the real winners were the three local non-profits - Bozeman Police Foundation, Bozeman Fire Fighters IAFF, and EverGreen Adventures!
