HIGHLIGHTS

Daniel Tiger, Captain Klumb and officers Vongehr and Klewin spent a fun filled Saturday with the community in the first annual neighbor day. Held at the Gallatin County Fairgrounds, Montana PBS partnered with community organizations for a free event, focusing on children from 3-8, with hands on educational activities.

After a 25-years of service to the community, Captain Cory Klumb retired at the end of June. Cory spent 22 ½ years with the Bozeman Police Department and started his career with Montana Highway Patrol. We would like to thank Cory for his service and dedication and wish him well on his next adventure!

Bozeman Police Department again led the Memorial Day Parade, honoring and remembering US Personnel who died while serving in the United States Armed Forces.

Montana Spy Camp was held in June at the Montana Science Center for children in grades 1-6. The kids had the opportunity to work their way through a laser maze, crack secret codes and learn how to take fingerprints.
